Head's Update...

Dear Parents,

Welcome back to everyone and a happy new year. I hope you all had peaceful and enjoyable Christmas with friends and family.

Due to careful management of the Federation's budget by our Governing Body, we have been able to afford to employ a new teacher for 4 days a week for our infants. Mrs Fee Wells brings a wealth of experience and will be working in Ash Class with Mrs Best. We will be sharing Mrs Wells with Shepton Beauchamp. Mrs Wells will be with us until Easter and then will join Shepton for the Summer, returning to us again in September.

Exciting New Curriculum!

We have invested in a new curriculum for the school, which is well resourced and highly interactive. Our Juniors will be studying "Invasion" and our Infants "Bright Lights, Big City."

We have trips planned for both classes and our teachers will let you know what is coming soon.

We have also started a new Personal, Social and Health Education programme called "jigsaw". From next week, ask your children about PAWs the cat!

Best wishes,

Connel Boyle

Executive Headteacher

Welcome to Ilton Mrs Wells!

Ash Class Become Kings and Queens!

We have been painting ourselves as kings and queens. We then thought about the 3 things we would do if we were king or queen.

Please ask your child what they would do!

Oak Class...INVASION!

Oak were welcomed back into class by the sounds of an epic medieval battle and were quick to discuss what they could hear to put together a clear picture of what might have been happening. Before moving onto the Saxons, Vikings and Normans, we first needed to understand what happened when the Romans withdrew from Britain. Oak Class worked in teams answering true or false facts.

Great teamwork Oak!
